

Biodiversity: Knowledge protects animals

Program: 04 - 06 February 2025

Tuesday, 04.02.2025 | 13.00-16.30 | Room will be announced

On 04.02.25 at 13:00 there will be a one-hour introductory lecture in the rooms of TUM, after which we will go together to the reptile rescue centre at Kaulbachstraße 37 and get an exclusive guided tour in English, during which the work of the station, its animals and the importance of ESD will be brought to life. The entire event is in English and free of charge for students. Cost contribution 15 € for everyone else. Binding registration for 04.02.2025 under: maresa.tworek-pollmer@bene-muenchen.de

Thursday, 06.02.2024 | 18:00-19:30 | Online lecture

“Tainted Love: a Dive into the Wildlife Trafficking World” by Juliana Ferreira. The renowned biologist and expert on wildlife crime will shed light on the causes the causes, effects and solutions in the fight against wildlife trafficking. Zoom: Webinar-ID: 634 7067 0726, password: hidden

In cooperation with:

Further information:

HOCHSCHULE
FÜR ANGEWANDTE
WISSENSCHAFTEN
MÜNCHEN

Supporters of the Munich
University Days:

